CIVIL CASE
MANAGEMENT PLAN
AND SCHEDULING
ORDER

This Civil Case Management Plan (the “Plan”) is submitted by the parties in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)(3).

1. All parties do not consent to conducting all further proceedings before a Magistrate Judge, including motions and trial. 28 U.S.C. § 636(c). The parties are free to withhold consent without adverse substantive consequences.
2. This case is to be tried to a jury.
3. Amended pleadings may not be filed and additional parties may not be joined except with leave of the Court. Any motion to amend or to join additional parties shall, absent good cause for a later motion, be filed within 30 days from the date of this Order.
4. Plaintiff believes that initial disclosures, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1), should be completed no later than 14 days from the date of this Order. Defendants believe that initial disclosures should be completed no later than 14 days after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.
5. Plaintiff believes that all fact discovery should be completed no later than May 13, 2022. Defendants believe that all fact discovery should be completed no later than seven (7) months after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.
6. The parties are to conduct discovery in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Southern District of New York. The following interim deadlines may be extended by the written consent of all parties without application to the Court, provided that all fact discovery is completed by the date set forth in paragraph 5 above.
  - a. Plaintiff believes that initial requests for production of documents should be served by March 11, 2022. Defendants believe that initial requests for production of documents should be served within thirty (30) days after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.

- b. Plaintiff believes that interrogatories under Local Rule 33.3(a) should be served by March 11, 2022. Defendants believe that interrogatories under Local Rule 33.3(a) should be served within thirty (30) days after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.
- c. Plaintiff believes that interrogatories under Local Rule 33.3(c) should be served by April 13, 2022. Defendants believe that interrogatories under Local Rule 33.3(c) should be served no earlier than one hundred eighty (180) days after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.
- d. Plaintiff believes that depositions should be completed by May 13, 2022. Defendants believe that depositions should be completed no later than seven (7) months after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.
- e. Plaintiffs believe that requests to admit should be served no later than April 13, 2022. Defendants believe that requests to admit should be served within sixty (60) days after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.
- f. Plaintiff believes that all expert discovery should be completed no later than June 27, 2022. Defendants believe that all expert discovery should be completed no later than ten (10) months after the Court issues its decisions on their anticipated motions to dismiss the Amended Complaint.

No later than thirty (30) days prior to the date in paragraph 5, i.e., the completion of all fact discovery, the parties shall meet and confer on a schedule for expert disclosures, including reports, production of underlying documents and depositions, provided that (i) expert report(s) of the party with the burden of proof shall be due before those of the opposing party's expert(s); and (ii) all expert discovery shall be completed by the date set forth in paragraph 7(a).

- 8. All motions and applications shall be governed by the Court's Individual Rules and Practices, including the requirement of a pre-motion conference before a motion for summary judgment is filed. Pursuant to the authority of Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(c)(2), any motion for summary judgment will be deemed untimely unless a request for a pre-motion conference relating thereto is made in writing within fourteen (14) days of the date in paragraph 5, i.e., the close of fact discovery.
- 9. All counsel must meet face-to-face for at least one hour to discuss settlement within fourteen (14) days following the close of fact discovery.
  - a. Counsel for the parties have discussed an informal exchange of information in aid of early settlement of this case and have agreed upon the following:

N/A.

- b. Counsel for the parties have discussed the use of the following alternate dispute resolution mechanisms for use in this case: (i) a settlement conference before a Magistrate Judge; (ii) participation in the District's Mediation Program; and/or (iii) retention of a privately-retained mediator. Counsel for the parties propose the following alternate dispute resolution mechanism for this case:

Alternative dispute resolution, if any, shall be done before a privately-retained mediator.

- c. Counsel for the parties recommend that the alternate dispute resolution mechanism designated in paragraph 10(b), be employed at the following point in the case (e.g., within the next sixty days; after the deposition of plaintiff is completed (specify date); after the close of fact discovery):

after the close of fact discovery.

- d. The use of any alternative dispute resolution mechanism does not stay or modify any date in this Order.
11. The Final Pretrial Order date is thirty (30) days following the close of fact and expert discovery (whichever is later). By the Final Pretrial Order date, the parties shall submit a Joint Pretrial Order prepared in accordance with the undersigned's Individual Rules and Practices and Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). Any motions in limine shall be filed after the close of discovery on or before the Final Pretrial Order date. If this action is to be tried before a jury, proposed voir dire, jury instructions and verdict form shall also be filed on or before the Final Pretrial Order date. Counsel are required to meet and confer on a joint submission of proposed jury instructions and verdict form, noting any points of disagreement in the joint submission. Jury instructions may not be submitted after the Final Pretrial Order date, unless they meet the standard of Fed. R. Civ. P. 51(a)(2)(A). If this action is to be tried to the Court, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law should be submitted on or before the Final Pretrial Order date.
12. Counsel for the parties have conferred and their present best estimate of the length of trial is 7 days.
13. [Other items, including those in Rule 26(f)(3).]

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE COURT:

The Plan has been reviewed by the Court and, except as modified, is adopted as the Scheduling Order of this Court in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b).

14. [Other]

15. The next Case Management Conference is scheduled for _____ at _____.

This ORDER may not be modified or the dates herein extended, except by further Order of this Court for good cause shown. Any application to modify or extend the dates herein (except as noted in paragraph 6) shall be made in a written application in accordance with paragraph 1.E of the Court's Individual Rules and Practices and shall be made no less than two (2) business days prior to the expiration of the date sought to be extended.
